(Sakura): What was your dream when you were a child, Mike?

(Mike): I wanted to be a doctor, but my dream changed when I took an airplane to Singapore. Flying in the sky became my dream after that.

(Sakura): I see. What did you do for your dream?

(Mike): Well, I studied math and science a lot. I also learned a lot about airplanes and had a lot of training. I worked hard for my dream. How about you, Sakura?

(Sakura): My dream is to sing on a stage, so I practice singing. However, my parents often say, "Please help us with our restaurant." I understand their feelings, but I'd like to do my best for my dream.

(Mike): You should keep trying. I think you have a beautiful voice.

(Sakura): Really? Thank you! (間2秒)

Question: What is Mike's advice to Sakura? (間7秒) 繰り返します。 (間5秒)

Hello. Let me tell you about what I have learned about Australia. First, school life. In Japan, I had short breaks between classes, but in Australia, I have only one long break at ten in the morning. Next, club activities. In Japan, I was in the soccer club and practiced at school, but in Australia, I go to a local club. I leave school at three, go to the park at four and practice for two hours. Finally, daily life. In Japan, people have enough water for taking a bath. However, it's difficult in Australia because there is not much rain. So I need to finish taking a shower in five minutes. I have learned these things about Australia. See you soon. (間 2 秒)

Questions: ① What is Jun talking about? (間5秒)

② What time does Jun finish practicing soccer in Australia? (間5秒)

③ Why does Jun need to finish taking a shower in five minutes? (間5秒)繰り返します。

(間3秒)

これでリスニングテストを終わります。次の問題に移ってください。
